

It is estimated that for each additional 1% of workers who lose their jobs, we lose 2.5% in total production

2. Lost Production: Workers who could be producing, instead sit at home unemployed...

Goods and services that were not produced due to unemployment, can never be recovered: That production is lost

Costs of Unemployment

Costs of Unemployment

2. Lost Production: Workers who could be producing, instead sit at home unemployed...

It is estimated that for each additional 1% of workers who lose their jobs, we lose 2.5% in total production

Goods and services that were not produced due to unemployment, can never be recovered: That production is lost

Costs of Unemployment