

To close an Inflationary Gap, Aggregate Expenditures and Aggregate Demand must decrease

1. Increase Taxes and/or Decrease Transfers to decrease Consumption

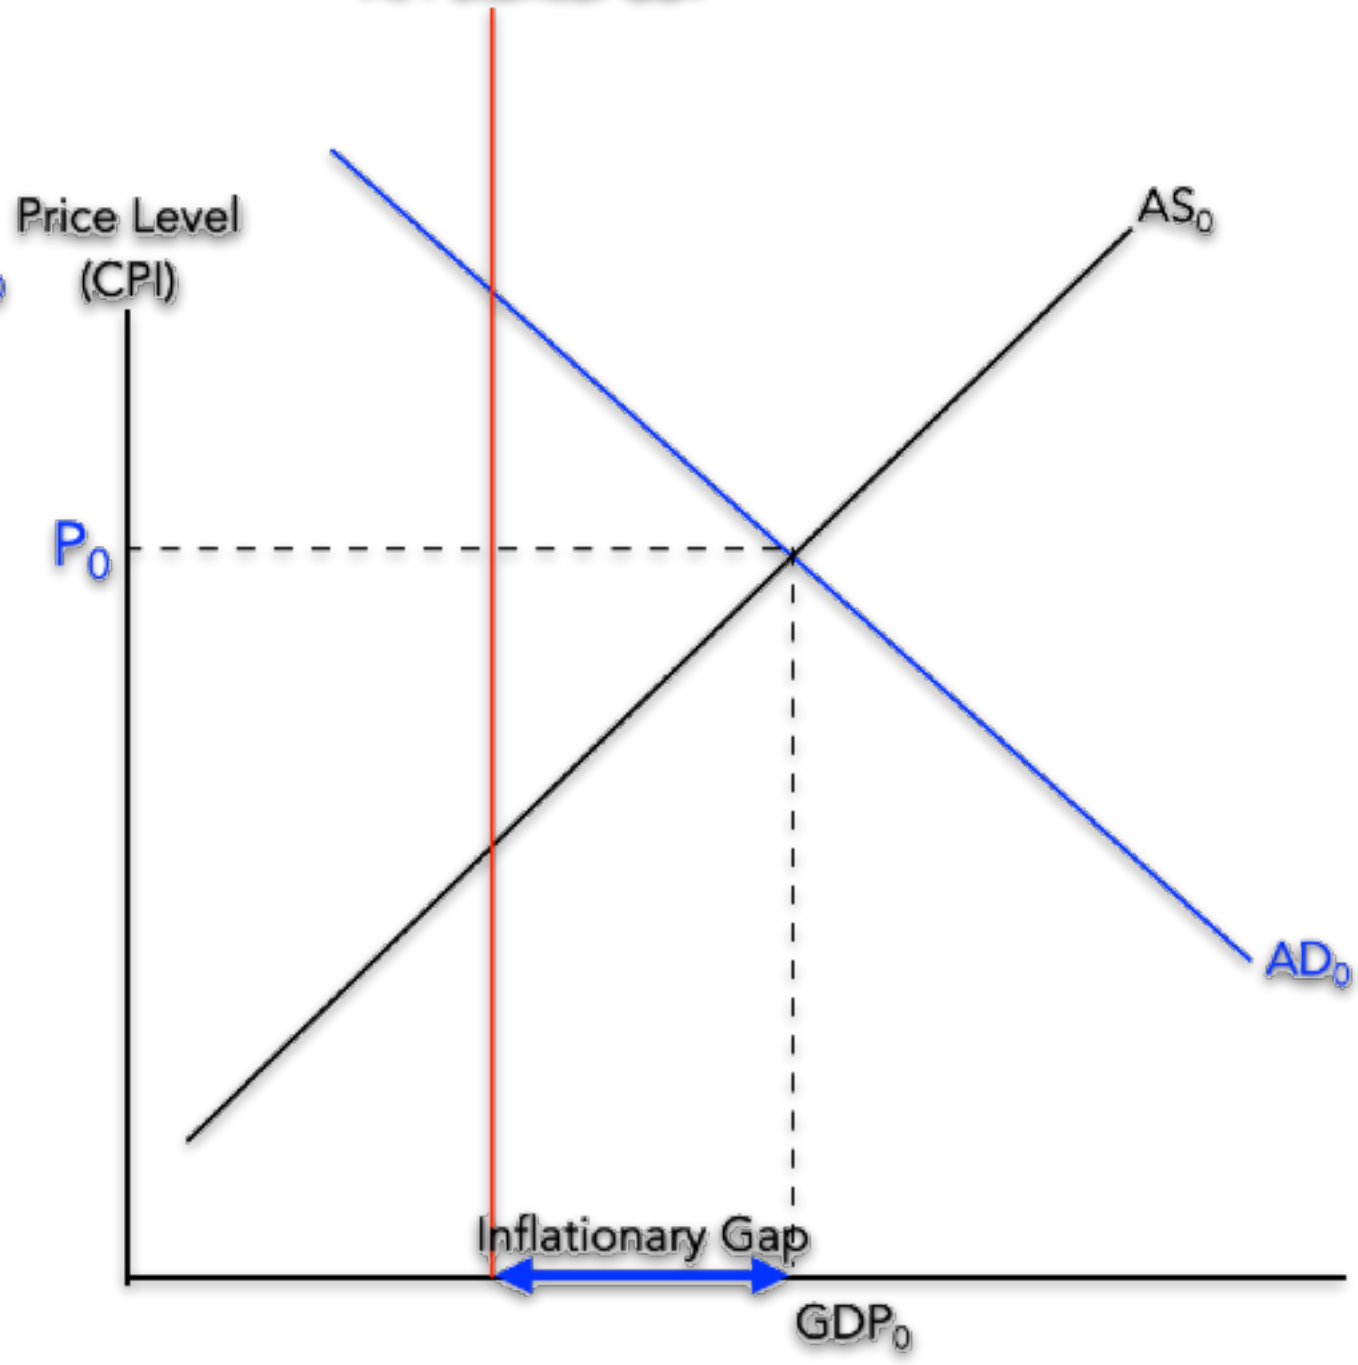

2. Decrease Government Spending

Contractary Policy

At Potential GDP

At Potential GDP

3. Sell bonds to decrease the Money Supply and cause an increase in all interest rates to reduce Investment spending

Contractionary Fiscal Policy

Contractionary Monetary Policy

AE_1

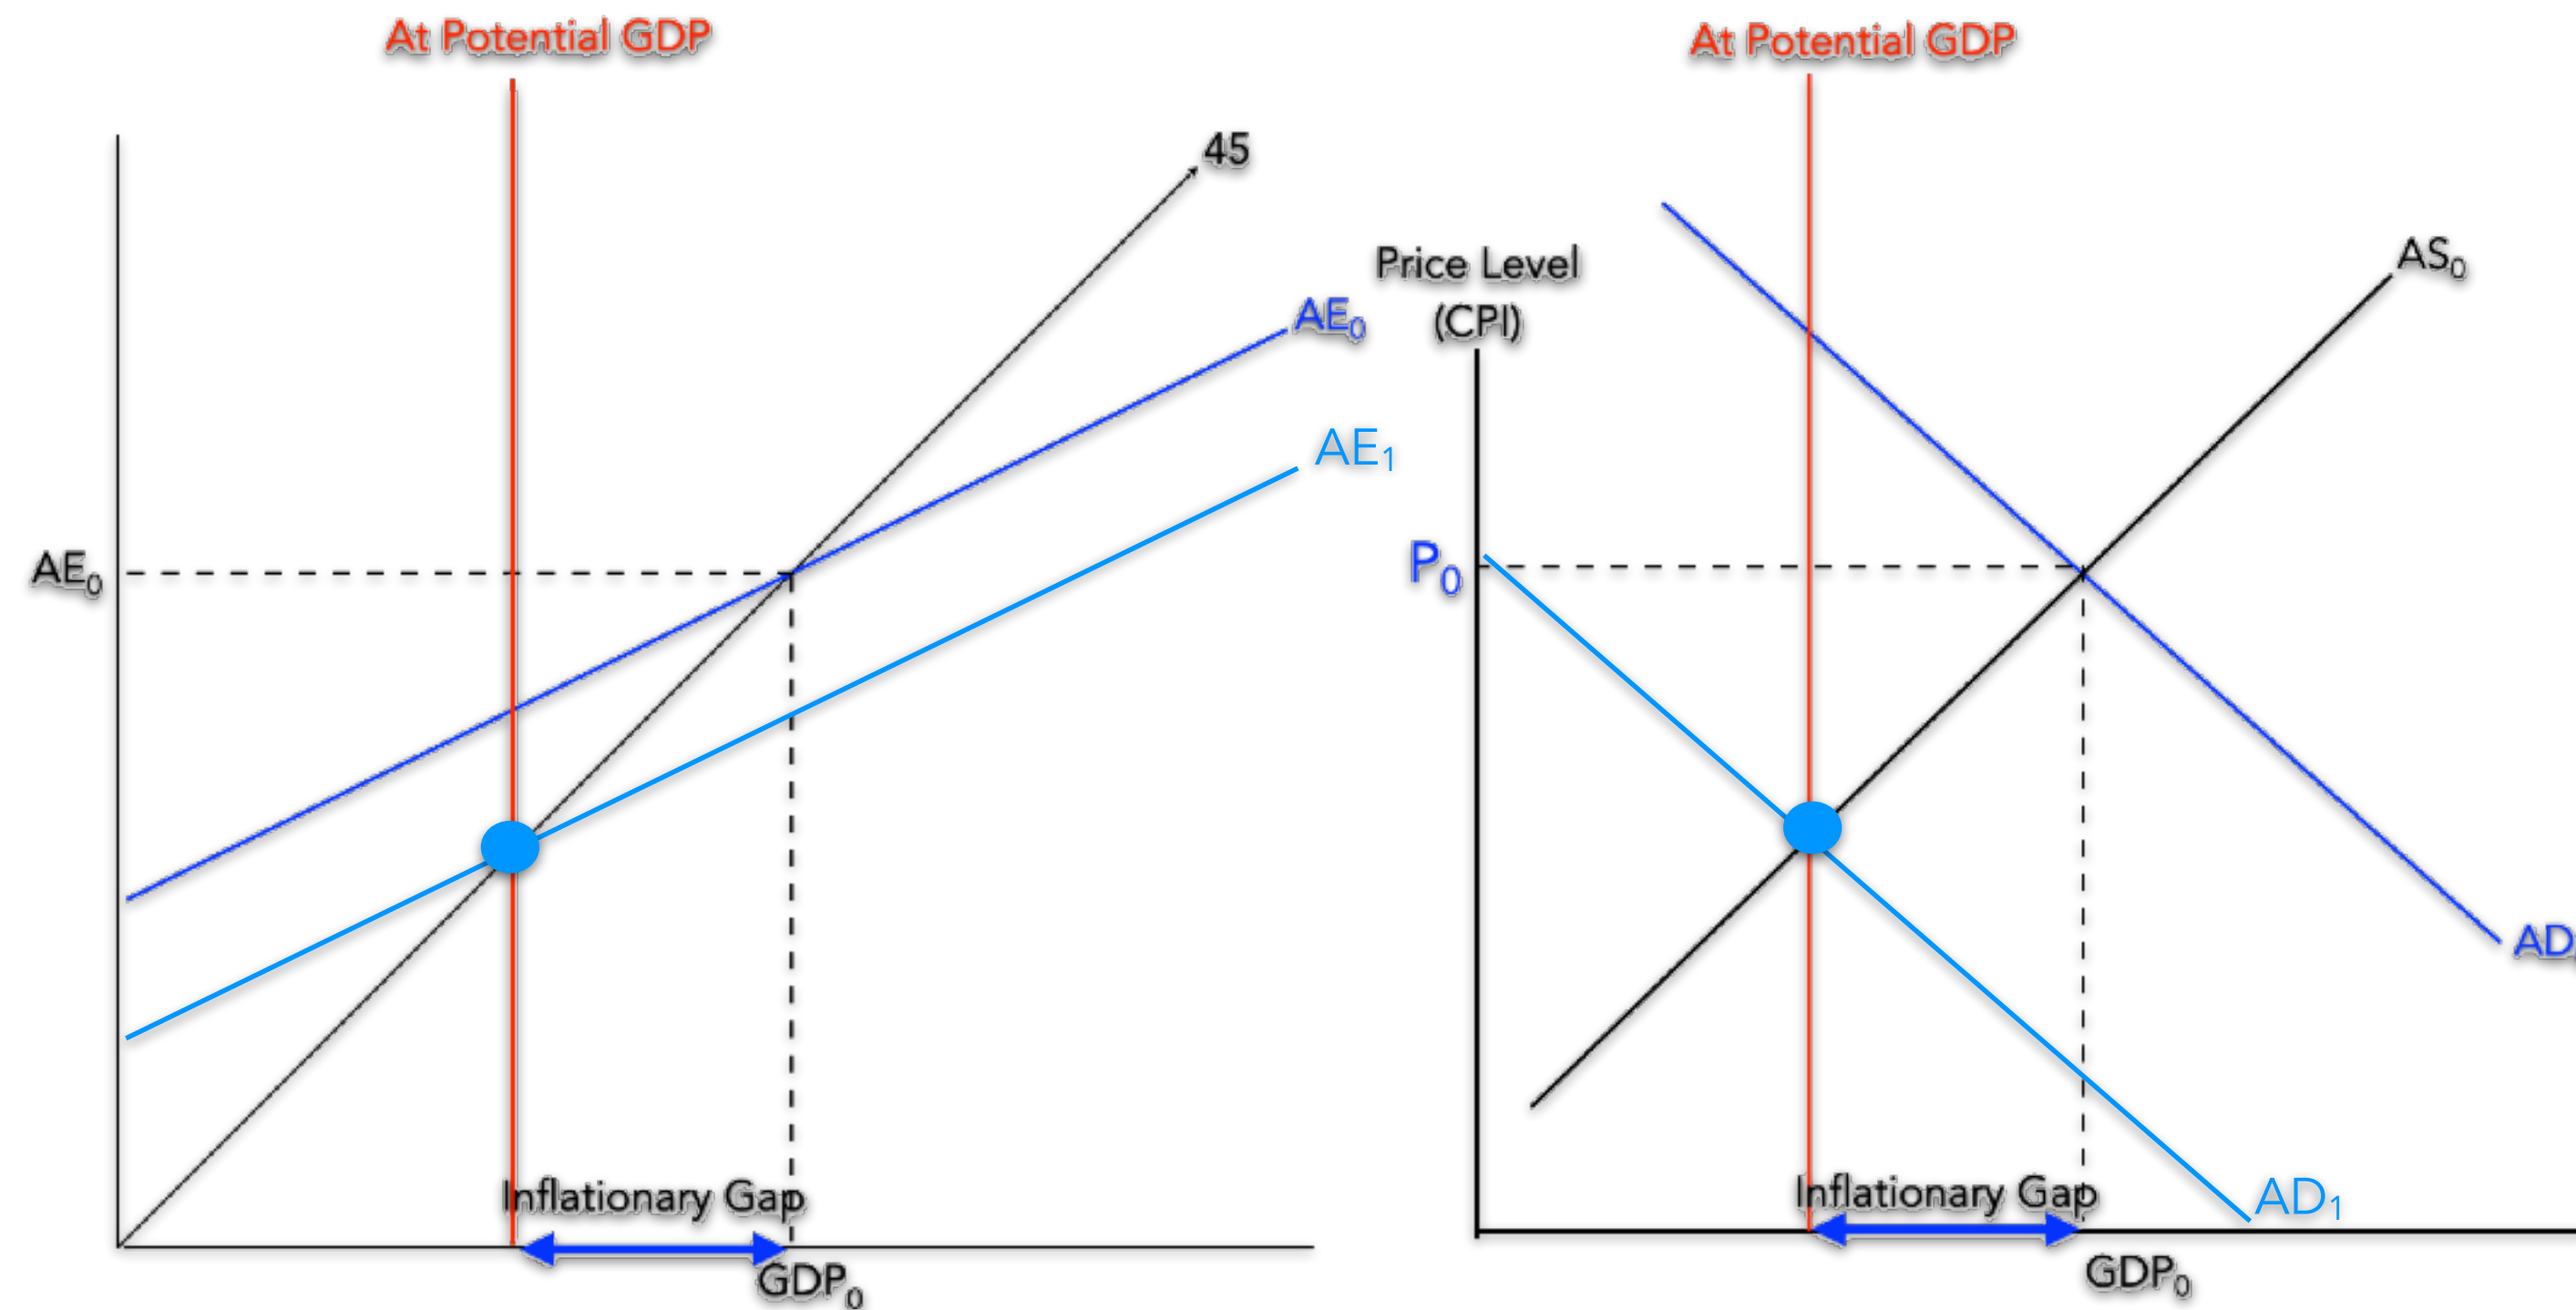

A solid blue line with a positive slope, starting from the bottom-left and extending towards the top-right. The line is straight and has a consistent upward angle.

3. Increase interest rates to decrease investment

Contractionary Policy

To close an Inflationary Gap, Aggregate Expenditures and Aggregate Demand must decrease

1. Increase Taxes and/or Decrease Transfers to decrease Consumption
2. Decrease Government Spending

Contractionary Fiscal Policy

3. Sell bonds to decrease the Money Supply and cause an increase in all interest rates to reduce Investment spending

Contractionary Monetary Policy

- Effective Federal Funds Rate
- 30-Year Fixed Rate Mortgage Average in the United States
- Bank Prime Loan Rate

