

Does the US economy has a self correcting mechanism?

Yes

- When the economy experiences an inflationary gap, there is “too much spending”. Demand increases beyond the capacity of firms to meet Demand

- Wages increase (AS shifts left) and prices increase slowing down Demand

Does the US economy has a self correcting mechanism?

Yes

- When the economy experiences an inflationary gap, there is "too much spending". Demand increases beyond the capacity of firms to meet Demand
- Wages increase (AS shifts left) and prices increase slowing down Demand

Does the US economy has a self correcting mechanism?