

GDP can also be calculated as the Sum of Values Added to raw materials in the process of producing goods and services

Value Added = Selling Price - Cost of production (value of raw materials)

GDP can also be calculated as the Sum of Values Added to raw materials in the process of producing goods and services

Value Added = Selling Price - Cost of production (value of raw materials)

GDP as the Sum of Values Added