

If we know it is a mistake why not include
Discouraged workers as Unemployed?

Because it is difficult to distinguish a person who gives up because s/he in fact, has exhausted all possible options
from a person who does not want to work

If we know it is a mistake why not include
Discouraged workers as Unemployed?

Because it is difficult to distinguish a person who gives up
because s/he in fact, has exhausted all possible options
from a person who does not want to work

The Longer a Recession lasts,