500 billion + 200 billion + 2,300 billion = 3,000 billion of New Money

March 15, 2020

With the fast-spreading coronavirus posing a dire threat to economic growth, the Fed would inject $500 billion in purchases of Treasury securities and at least $200 billion in purchases of mortgage-backed debt “over the coming months.”

June 10, 2020

The Federal Reserve said it would pump $2,300 billion into the economy ramping up its efforts to help companies and state and local governments suffering financial damage from the coronavirus.
