

What distinguishes a Capital good from an Intermediate good is that after selling the final good, the producer still has the depreciated capital good while intermediate goods go entirely into the production of the Final Good

Paper purchased by a Lawyer's Office

Is an Intermediate good because it is entirely included in the documents filed by the lawyer

Is a Capital Good

because the lawyer still has the printer after your case is closed
